

Treasure the Adventure Writing Contest

On July 17, 2010, Child's Play Theatre will perform at the Morton Grove Public Library and your manuscript could be part of the show!

How? Write a story, play, song, poem or even a comic strip and submit it to the Youth Services Department at MGPL by Sunday, May 16, 2010 at 5:00 pm. The contest is open to all children in grades 1-6.

Your original work should be about adventure or discovery. It can be real or from your imagination. It can take place anywhere - even at the Library, because you never know where you might find adventure next.

Your masterpiece can be as short or long as you'd like and pictures are encouraged. Don't delay. Start writing today and see your masterpiece performed this summer.
